

1. INTRODUCTION

The University of Notre Dame is committed to operating in an ethical, honest, and lawful manner in pursuit of fulfilling its mission and expects its employees to act in accordance with University policies and applicable law.

2. POLICY STATEMENT

Any University employee who has a good faith belief or concern that misconduct is taking place or has taken place is expected to report the matter. Misconduct is defined as any activity by a University employee that violates a law, regulation, grant requirement, or University policy. Types of behavior that are considered misconduct include, but are not limited to: misuse of grant money, University property or resources; impropriety or fraud with respect to financial reporting or accounting; embezzlement; theft; or conspiring with or coercing another to engage in any of such behaviors.

A report will be promptly and thoroughly investigated with all reasonable efforts made to protect the identity of the person who made the report. Further, the University strictly prohibits retaliation against anyone who reports misconduct. If an individual believes that he or she has been retaliated against for disclosing information regarding misconduct, he or she should refer to the University's Non-Retaliation Policy and follow the procedures set forth therein for filing an internal complaint. If retaliation is found to have occurred, prompt remedial action will be taken, up to and including dismissal.

3. SCOPE

This policy applies to all University of Notre Dame employees, both faculty and staff.
